

105,819

7

1914

Apr. 24, 1914, 3:30 P.M. Mrs. Jessie Easton, who conducts room house at 338 So. Broad St., informed me that a woman by name of Mary Burton is living in the apartment with 3 children and that she is not a fit person to take care of them as these children are very often crying for something to eat and Rebecca Marker, who has a room next to Mrs Burton says that most every night the Burton woman has men in her bedroom until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning.

Signed Patrolman Maurice Murphy

D.T. 9/8/26

JANE GIBSON

Alias Mrs. Mary Eisleitner

"Pig Woman"

Mrs. Easton

May Ray

Janette Hilton and

Anna King of Hoboken, N.J.

Discovered that Mrs. Gibson at one time resided at 336 South Broad St., Trenton, occupying the whole house and the store where she conducted a secondhand furniture business. Her name at that time was Mrs. Easton.

J. H. H.
Hyman Silverstein, conducting a furniture store at 332 South Broad St., knew Mrs. Easton whom he said disappeared 10 or 12 years ago owing him a bill of $14. Her account on his books was dated Feb. 16, 1914. According to Silverstein she lived with a man named Easton and a small boy about 12